

Santa Rosa Symphony Institute for Music Education
2022-2023 Financial Aid Packet

Dear Financial Aid Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Music Education programs sponsored by the Santa Rosa Symphony Association. Need-based financial aid is available depending on donated funds. Requests for financial aid are kept confidential.

The current Santa Rosa Symphony Youth Ensemble (SRSYE) guidelines (attached) reflect the State of California Department of Education's definition of financial need. Families whose income falls within the guidelines are encouraged to apply to the program. If your income exceeds the published guidelines, but you have debts or special circumstances that should be considered, you may still apply for assistance. However, you will need to specify the reasons in the Explanations and Special Circumstances section on page 4 of this application packet.

Completed applications must be postmarked by the deadline dates listed at the top of page 3. Financial aid may be available after these dates, but it is not guaranteed. Requests for financial aid are processed after the deadline in the order in which the completed applications are received. Only one application is required per year.

To apply, please follow these instructions:

1. Complete the financial aid application.
2. Attach a signed copy of the family's 2021 federal income tax (1040) form. A copy of the family's Application for Free and Reduced-Price Meals For School Year 2022-2023 may be submitted if a federal income tax document is not available.
3. Attach a non-refundable deposit of $50. This deposit will be applied toward tuition.
4. Registration forms for the program/orchestra for which you are applying.

Make checks payable to the Santa Rosa Symphony. Please list your musicians' names in the memo section of the check. Credit card payments are also accepted. Incomplete applications cannot be processed.

Please mail all application materials and tuition payments to:
